Chet Loftis, Public Employees Health Programs

Chet is the Director of the Public Employees Health Plan where he is responsible for strategic direction and oversees all operations.

He has close to 20 years of experience in healthcare, government, and the private sector. He has a broad skill set in law, public policy, and management and has worked for all three branches of state government, Regence BlueCross BlueShield, the Utah Medical Association, and the Law Firm of Kirton & McConkie.

He earned his law degree and MPA from BYU.